PREFACE

In almost any family history publication, rarely is there an end to the facts which could be included. Missing dates and locations for births, marriages, and deaths are common, while other facts such as occupations, church affiliations, military service, educational levels, professional certifications, and organizational memberships are often not readily available. Additionally, as divorces have become almost commonplace beginning around the mid-twentieth century and continuing until the present, divorce records are not always easily obtainable; therefore, records for second, third and even fourth marriages may not be located. Also, the increased mobility of the population lends a fairly large degree of difficulty in tracing persons throughout their lives. Thus, with very few exceptions, no persons beyond the sixth generation are included in this work.

The reader of this history will notice many source citations for Forsyth County Register of Deeds Birth, Marriage or Death Index. These citations refer to a series of cd's made available about 2003 by the ROD office. Examples of a page for each of indices for these vital records is located in the appendix to this book. The cd's are no longer available but a researcher can visit the ROD office on the second floor of the Forsyth County Governmental Center and use one of their computers to access the current indices and view/print a copy of the original document. Or, an abbreviated version is available online, but requires the user to establish an account (free) with the Register of Deeds.

The photographs in the book vary in quality from barely acceptable to good. Two reasons exist for this variance. First is the age of the picture. Technology in the late nineteenth century into the mid to late twentieth century was inferior to today's digital images. Secondly, some of the photographs are third and fourth copies of the originals accompanied by a slight degradation in quality with each subsequent copy. Your compiler could not justify the time required to "photoshop" the poorer photographs, and the result may have not improved them very much.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

My most grateful appreciation is expressed to my second cousin, twice removed, Nellie Wilson Kinney, for all her kindness back in the 1980's in discussing the Craft family history and showing me where various Craft family members used to live. Also, her book CRAFTS OF NORTH CAROLINA was an invaluable source in assembling earlier generations.

Likewise, Alma Wilson spent much time sharing historical stories and allowing me to copy many of her family photographs. She was a very special cousin to me, one with whom I would have liked to have spent more time.

Additionally, my thanks to Polly and Floyd Craft, Madeline Clary Kuettner, and Kimberly Denise Pegram for their assistance.

DEDICATION

This book is dedicated in loving memory to my maternal grandmother, Nannie Craft Jones. Her encouragement to continue my education and to always strive to achieve success in whatever career I chose sustained me through some lean times.

Thank you, Mammaw.

Death Notes: Died as a prisoner of war of the Yankees.

Burial Notes: Nathan is buried in Confederate Section Site 85.

Noted events in his life were:

- On the 1850 census listing, Nathan was shown as a farmer and had attended school within the year. He lived in his father Vachel's household with his mother and nine siblings.⁵⁹
- He appeared on the census on 1 Jun 1860 in Forsyth County NC.⁶⁰ This census lists Nathan as a carpenter living either beside or across from his father Vachel. He had personal property valued at $200. The child listed as "Emeline", age ½ year, is in error and should be shown as his son John William. Emeline is the middle name of Nathan's wife; "Charity" is her given name. The enumerator confusedly split the two names.
- Confederate Army: Enlisted in Company K, 52nd Regiment, on 18 Jan 1863, in Wayne County NC.^{57,61} Nathan was captured by the Yankees on 15 Oct 1863 during the battle of Bristoe Station VA. He had been suffering from chronic diarrhea since at least 18 Jun 1863 when he was admitted to General Hospital No. 9 at Richmond, VA. He was returned to duty from Chimborazo Hospital No. 3 on 27 Jul 1863. Nathan was likely not well enough to return to war as he was captured less than three months later. He was admitted to Lincoln USA General Hospital in Washington DC on 20 Oct 1863 with chronic diarrhea and sent to Old Capitol Prison on 24 Nov 1863. On 26 Dec 1863, he was in the prison hospital with dysentery also. Sent back to Lincoln USA General Hospital on 6 Jan 1864, Nathan died there on 11 Jan 1864. His records note that he had no personal effects. So very sad that his life was snuffed out at such a young age, giving his all to the "lost cause".

Nathan married Charity Emeline TERRY on 5 May 1859 in Forsyth County NC.⁶² Charity was born on 9 Feb 1837,^{62,63} died on 29 Apr 1898,⁶³ and was buried in Hickory Ridge United Methodist Church Cemetery.⁶³
